

SUBSTITUTE FOR HOUSE BILL NO. 5152

A bill to amend 1961 PA 236, entitled
"Revised judicature act of 1961," by amending section 3208 (MCL 600.3208) and by adding sections 3214 and 3222.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN ENACT:

1 Sec. 3208. Notice that ~~the~~a mortgage will be foreclosed under 2 this chapter by a sale of the mortgaged premises, or ~~some~~ part of 3 ~~them, shall the premises, must~~ be given by ~~publishing~~doing all of 4 the following:

5 (a) Publishing the ~~same~~notice for 4 successive weeks at least 6 once in each week ~~in~~ in a newspaper published in the county where 7 the premises included in the mortgage and intended to be sold, or 8 ~~some part of them, the premises, are situated.~~located. If no

1 newspaper is published in the county, the notice ~~shall~~must be 2 published in a newspaper published in an adjacent county. ~~In every~~ 3 ~~case within~~

4 (b) For residential property described in section 3214(9), 5 before the first publication of the notice under subdivision (a), 6 recording a true copy of the notice with the register of deeds for 7 the county or counties in which the premises are located.

8 (c) Not later than 15 days after the first publication of the 9 notice under subdivision (a), ~~posting~~ a true copy ~~shall be posted~~ 10 ~~of the notice~~ in a conspicuous place ~~upon~~on any part of the 11 premises described in the notice.

12 Sec. 3214. (1) If a mortgagor, the mortgagor's heirs or 13 personal representative, or any person that has a recorded interest 14 in the mortgaged premises that was obtained before a notice of 15 foreclosure is recorded under section 3208(b), conveys the 16 mortgaged premises after the notice of foreclosure is recorded and 17 before the foreclosure sale conducted under section 3216, the 18 grantee is liable to the grantor for damages as provided in this 19 section, unless the grantee provides a notice of rights that 20 satisfies all of the requirements of subsection (2) to the grantor 21 before execution of the instrument of conveyance, but not before 22 the cooling-off period under subsection (3) has elapsed.

23 (2) All of the following apply to a notice of rights required 24 under subsection (1):

25 (a) The notice must be a separate document from the instrument 26 of conveyance and any other document.

27 (b) The notice must be printed in not less than 14-point 28 boldfaced type.

29 (c) The notice must be signed and dated by each grantor.

1 (d) A copy of the fully executed notice, signed and dated by 2 all parties, must be provided to each grantor at the time of 3 signing.

4 (e) Before presenting the notice to the grantor for signature, 5 the grantee must complete all blanks in the notice, including all 6 property value disclosures required by the notice language under 7 subsection (8). A notice presented with any required blank unfilled 8 does not satisfy the requirements of this section.

9 (f) The notice must identify the property by street address 10 and by each tax parcel identification number assigned to the 11 property. If the property consists of more than 1 parcel, the 12 notice must list every parcel identification number. If no street 13 address or parcel identification number has been assigned, the 14 notice must include the legal description of the property. A good-15 faith error in, or omission of, a parcel identification number does 16 not, by itself, make the notice noncompliant or give rise to 17 liability under subsection (5) if the property is otherwise 18 reasonably identified in the notice.

19 (3) A grantee shall not present an instrument of conveyance 20 subject to this section, or an agreement, option, or contract to 21 convey an interest subject to this section, to the grantor for 22 execution before 7 days after the grantor signed the notice of 23 rights required under subsection (1). An instrument of conveyance, 24 or an agreement, option, or contract to convey an interest, 25 executed in violation of this 7-day cooling-off period is a per se 26 willful violation under subsection (5)(c). This 7-day cooling-off 27 period is mandatory and cannot be waived.

28 (4) The existence of a notice signed under this section is not 29 a defense against a claim of fraud, duress, misrepresentation, or

1 unconscionability, and does not preclude any other remedy at law or 2 equity available to the grantor.

3 (5) A grantee who fails to provide a notice of rights as 4 required under subsection (1) is liable to the grantor for damages 5 as follows:

6 (a) The measure of damages is the fair market value of the 7 premises at the time of conveyance, less the outstanding mortgage 8 balance as stated in a notice of foreclosure recorded under section 9 3208(b), less the consideration actually paid by the grantee to the 10 grantor. As used in this subdivision, "consideration actually paid" 11 means cash or cash equivalent actually received by the grantor at 12 or before closing, not including any amounts paid by the grantee 13 directly to satisfy the mortgage or other liens encumbering the 14 premises.

15 (b) The grantor bears the initial burden of establishing a 16 reasonable estimate of the fair market value of the premises at the 17 time of conveyance by competent evidence. Competent evidence 18 includes, and is not limited to, a retrospective appraisal by a 19 licensed appraiser and comparable sales data for similar properties 20 in the same area within a reasonable time of the conveyance. Upon 21 the grantor establishing a reasonable estimate of fair market 22 value, the burden shifts to the grantee to rebut that estimate by a 23 preponderance of the evidence.

24 (c) If the court finds that the violation was willful, the 25 court shall award 2 times the damages calculated under subdivision 26 (a). A violation is presumed willful if any of the following apply:

27 (i) The grantee is a person other than an individual, and the 28 grantee's stated or apparent business purpose involves acquiring 29 distressed or foreclosed properties.

1 (ii) The grantee, or a beneficial owner or controlling person 2 of the grantee, has acquired more than 1 interest in mortgaged 3 premises during a foreclosure gap period within the 3 years 4 preceding the conveyance at issue.

5 (iii) The notice of rights was backdated, as established by any 6 evidence, including, but not limited to, document metadata, witness 7 testimony, or inconsistency with other transaction documents.

8 (iv) The grantee took affirmative steps to prevent the grantor 9 from seeking legal counsel, including, but not limited to, 10 requiring same-day signing, misrepresenting the nature of the 11 documents, or representing that the notice of rights was not 12 required.

13 (v) The grantee failed to record the instrument of conveyance 14 and the notice of rights not later than 120 days after execution.

15 (d) In addition to damages under subdivision (a) or (c), the 16 court shall award the grantor reasonable attorney fees and costs if 17 the grantor prevails.

18 (6) Any individual who is a beneficial owner of, or who 19 exercises control over the management or operations of, an entity 20 that is subject to this section is jointly and severally liable 21 with the entity for all damages and attorney fees awarded under 22 this section. A beneficial owner or controlling person is presumed 23 to have had actual knowledge of the recorded notice of foreclosure 24 at the time of the conveyance. This presumption may be rebutted by 25 clear and convincing evidence.

26 (7) It is an affirmative defense to liability under this 27 section that the grantee had no actual knowledge of the recorded 28 notice of foreclosure at the time the instrument of conveyance was 29 executed. For purposes of this subsection, a grantee who conducted a bona fide search of the register of deeds index before closing and found no recorded foreclosure notice is presumed to have had no actual knowledge of the pending foreclosure.

(8) A notice of rights required under subsection (1) must contain the following language:

This document serves as a formal notice of certain rights that will be forfeited on the sale of this property. By signing a deed and completing the sale of the property, you will be waiving and relinquishing rights you may have under statute, as follows:

1. Right of Redemption: By selling the property, you permanently waive any and all rights to redeem or reclaim the property. The right of redemption allows a mortgagor, the property owner, to reclaim a foreclosed property by paying off the outstanding debt within a legally specified redemption period. This right is irrevocably forfeited on your completion of the sale.

2. Right to Occupancy During the Redemption Period: You further acknowledge that any rights to remain in the property during the redemption period will no longer be available to you. Once the conveyance is complete, you forfeit any and all rights to continue occupying the property.

3. Right to Surplus Proceeds: Your home may be worth more than the outstanding balance of your mortgage. If the home is sold at public auction, and the sale price is greater than the balance of the mortgage, you may be entitled to collect the remaining sale

1 proceeds. By selling the property before the public auction, you 2 will have no right to collect the surplus proceeds that may have 3 resulted from the auction sale.

4 By signing a deed or instrument of conveyance, which by law 5 may not be presented to you for signature until at least 7 days 6 after the date you sign this notice, you will be waiving all of the 7 above rights provided to you by statute.

8 YOU HAVE A 7-DAY COOLING-OFF PERIOD.

9 BY LAW, YOU CANNOT BE ASKED TO SIGN THE DEED OR INSTRUMENT OF 10 SALE UNTIL 7 DAYS AFTER YOU HAVE SIGNED THIS NOTICE. THIS PERIOD IS 11 TO GIVE YOU TIME TO UNDERSTAND YOUR RIGHTS AND SEEK HELP.

12 WARNING: THIS DOCUMENT MAY NOT BE BACKDATED. SIGNING THIS 13 DOCUMENT WITH A FALSE DATE IS FRAUD UNDER MICHIGAN LAW AND MAY 14 RESULT IN CRIMINAL PROSECUTION AND CIVIL LIABILITY.

15 (9) This section applies only to residential property that 16 does not exceed 4 units. For purposes of this section, property 17 that is used in part for nonresidential purposes is residential 18 property only if the residential use is the principal use of the 19 property.

20 (10) It is an affirmative defense to liability under 21 subsection (5) that the grantee provided the grantor a notice of 22 rights that contained all completed property value disclosures 23 required under subsection (8), the grantor signed and dated the 24 notice, the cooling-off period under subsection (3) was observed, 25 and the defect did not mislead or prejudice the grantor.

26 (11) Not later than 30 days after execution of an instrument 27 of conveyance that is subject to this section, the grantee shall 28 record the instrument, with the fully executed notice of rights 29 required under subsection (1) attached, with the register of deeds

1 for the county or counties in which the premises are located.

2 (12) A grantee who fails to comply with subsection (11) is 3 liable to the grantor for a civil penalty of $50.00 for each day 4 the failure continues, beginning on the thirty-first day after 5 execution and ending on the date the instrument and attached notice 6 are recorded, not to exceed $25,000.00 for each instrument, and 7 liable for reasonable attorney fees and costs if the grantor 8 prevails. A penalty under this subsection is in addition to, and 9 not instead of, any liability under subsection (5).

10 (13) The period of limitations for an action under subsection 11 (5) does not begin to run until both the instrument of conveyance 12 and the notice of rights required under subsection (1) are recorded 13 as required under subsection (11).

14 Sec. 3222. If a notice of foreclosure is recorded under 15 section 3208(b) and a sale scheduled in a notice under section 3212 16 is cancelled by the party foreclosing the mortgage, a notice 17 cancelling the notice of foreclosure must be recorded with the 18 register of deeds for the county or counties in which the premises 19 are located not later than 30 days after the sale is canceled.

20 Enacting section 1. This amendatory act does not take effect 21 unless House Bill No. 5153 of the 103rd Legislature is enacted into 22 law.
